

Beach Cleaning & Slogan Writing Competition

October 11, 2014 (Saturday) | 08:30 am - 11:30 am | Gandhi Statue, Beach Road,
Puducherry

CMS VATAVARAN on the fifth day of its festival organized Beach Cleaning & Slogan Writing Competition along with PONDYCAN!, the Organising Partner of the festival.

The activity begun with a small welcome address by CMS followed by a brief introduction about the activity by Organising Partner representative Mr Probir Banerjee, Founder, PONDYCAN!. The participants were divided into 3 teams and were given gloves and waste bags. The team which brought 2 full bags first was the winner. Beach cleaning activity was followed by slogan writing competition.

The participants wrote slogans in both Tamil and English language. Very interesting slogans were written by the participants and Mr P Devinathan, activist who judged the Tamil version had a difficult time selecting the best slogan. All the entrants were given a certificate of participation. The Radio Partner Pudukkottai Vaani 107.8 FM covered the entire activity and interviewed the children and adults participating in the program.

Among the prominent school & college participants were: Immaculate Heart of Mary's Girls Higher Secondary School, Mission Street Branch and Aryankuppam Branch, Kendriya Vidyalaya No. 1 & 2, Subamani Boides, Ecole Anglaise, Petit Seminaire Higher Secondary School, The Study, AGL College, Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar Law College and Pondicherry University. The general public also participated in this activity.

The winners of the Slogan Writing Competition were felicitated during the closing ceremony. Gunalan R bagged the best award in Tamil Slogan Writing and J Jayakavi won the best award in English Slogan Writing Competitions. Mr Probir Banerjee from PONDYCAN! presented the awards to the winners.
